How to use this episode guide

This guide is meant to be read after watching the episode.

You do not need to read all listed chapters.

Only read the chapters that are explicitly marked as:

“skipped”, “missing”, or “key information omitted”.

Chapters mentioned only for comparison or timeline reference do not need to be read.

Chapter 1 Crimson, Chapter 2 Situation and Chapter 3 Melissa

The anime shows almost the same way the web novel describes the action , “almost” because the anime is making everything more engaging by having him being followed by someone and everything is happening so fast you can’t keep up with information , probably why they left out a lot of information that Zhou Mingrui gathers from this 3 chapters , everything later feels like he already knows enough even though he didn’t learn anything in the anime

Key differences:

- Klein is not followed by anyone like the anime shows when he leaves the house
- Before leaving his house to go buy bread he is taking his revolver with him, but he leaves one chamber empty in case he misfires
- Leonard is not protecting him all this time either
- When the clown gives him the flyer, he is approached by the animal trainer for a tarot reading

Chapter 4 Divination At 10:06

General Knowledge about Roselle Gustav “Senior Transmigrator”

This pronunciation was almost identical to the tarot cards on Earth!

And tarot cards from Earth were a set of cards used for divination. They just had graphics that represented different omens.

Wait... He suddenly recalled the origins of tarot divination in this world.

It did not originate from the seven orthodox gods nor was it an ancient legacy. Instead, it was created by the Intis Republic's Consul of that era, Roselle Gustav, more than 170 years ago.

This Mr. Roselle invented the steam engine, improved the sailing boat, overthrew the Intis Kingdom's imperial rule, and was recognized by the God of Craftsmanship. He also became the first Consul of the Intis Republic.

Later, he invaded other nations and placed Lenburg and other nations under his protection. He made the Loen Kingdom, Feynapotter, Feysac Empire and other powerful Northern Continent nations bow down to the Intis Republic. Following that, the Republic was then changed to an Empire and he became the self-proclaimed 'Emperor Caesar.'

It was during Roselle's rule that the Church of Craftsmanship received its first public holy revelation since the Fifth Epoch. Ever since, the God of Craftsmanship was changed to the God of Steam and Machinery.

Roselle also invented tarot divination. He also established the contemporary system of paper-based cards and their playstyles. There were many familiar styles that Zhou Mingrui was familiar with, such as Upgrade, Fighting the Landlord, Texas Poker, and Quint...

In addition, the marine fleets he sent out discovered a sea route that led to the Southern Continent through the stormy and turbulent seas. This also began the era of colonialism.

Unfortunately, he was betrayed in his old age. In the year 1198 of the Fifth Epoch, he was assassinated by the combined forces of the Church of the Eternal Blazing Sun, the former Intis royal family—the Sauron family—and other aristocrats. He eventually died in the White Maple Palace.

This... To recall such general knowledge suddenly made him facepalm.

Could this be a transmigration senior?

Chapter 5 Ritual At 14:32

He just sighed and did not think further about it as he hurried back home.

With the staple food, he could now carry out the luck enhancement ritual!

After the second-floor tenants gradually left, Zhou Mingrui was still in no hurry to carry out the ritual. Instead, he translated the “The Immortal Lord of Heaven and Earth for Blessings” and related phrases into the ancient Feysac language, as well as the Loen language. He was intending to try the ritual again the next day in those local languages if the original incantation did not take effect!

After all, he had to take into consideration the differences between the two worlds. In Rome, do as the Romans do!

As for translating it into an ancient ritual prayer that used the dedicated Hermes language, Zhou Mingrui had a difficult time completing it due to his lack of vocabulary.

Episode 1 At 16:43

In the Loen Kingdom's capital, Backlund. Inside a luxurious looking villa at the royal district.

Audrey Hall sat in front of a dresser. The markings on it were antiquated and there was a cracked bronze mirror on the surface.

“Mirror, mirror, awaken...

“In the name of the Hall family, I command you to awaken!”

She switched between many different sayings, but there was no reaction from the mirror at all.

After more than 10 minutes, she finally chose to give up and pouted her lips in grievance. She said in a soft murmur, “Father was indeed lying to me. He always tells me that this mirror was the treasure of the Solomon Empire’s Black Emperor, and that it is an extraordinary item...”

Her voice trailed off. The bronze mirror which rested on the dresser suddenly glowed with a crimson light that shrouded her completely.

In the Sonia Sea, a three-masted sailboat that looked like an obvious relic was navigating through a storm.

Alger Wilson stood on deck, his body undulating with the currents at sea, maintaining his balance easily.

He wore a robe embroidered with lightning patterns, and in his hand was a quirky-shaped glass bottle. Bubbles billowed inside the bottle at times, frost turned into snow at times, and signs of gusting wind could be seen at times.

“Still short on the Ghost Shark’s blood...” Alger murmured.

Then at this moment, a crimson burst appeared in the space between the glass bottle and the surface of his palm. In an instant, it enveloped the surroundings as well.

Chapter 6 Beyonder At 19:09

Not only did they speak the same Loen language, they also shared the same grim and tense vibes.

Where am I? What do I plan to do here? I would like to know too... Calming himself down, Zhou Mingrui silently repeated the questions posed by the two.

What left the deepest impression on him were neither the sentences formed by words nor the meanings behind them, but the display of bewilderment, vigilance, panic, and reverence by the couple!

For some baffling reason, two people had been mysteriously dragged into this world surrounded by gray fog. As the perpetrator, Zhou Mingrui was already feeling abnormally dumbfounded and startled, let alone the couple who was pulled into this mess completely passively!

For them, such events and encounters might already be beyond their imaginations, right?

Momentarily, Zhou Mingrui thought of two options: The first option was feigning victimhood to hide his true identity, and in turn gain a considerable amount of trust. He could then take a wait-and-see approach and take advantage of his circumstances where necessary. The other option was to maintain his mysterious identity in the eyes of the couple. He could then affect the subsequent development while gleaning valuable information from them.

Without the luxury of time to deliberate over the situation, he grasped hold of the thought that flashed across his mind. He made an immediate decision to try out the second idea.

Exploit the psychological state of the others to gain the greatest advantage for himself!

Episode 1 At 21:38

Alger leaned back slightly, and replied unhurriedly, “As you know, humanity can only depend on potions to become real Beyonders, while the names of potions come from the ‘Blasphemy Slate.’ After constant translations into Jotun, Elvish, ancient and modern Hermes, and ancient Feysac, they have undergone changes to match the day and age of that era. The essence is not in their names, but whether they portray the ‘core characteristics’ of the potions.

“I have a Sequence 9 Potion named ‘Sailor.’ It enables you to have excellent balancing capabilities. Even if you were on a boat in a rainstorm, you will be able to walk about freely as though you were on land. You will also gain immense strength and illusory scales under your skin. They will enable you to swim like a fish and be difficult to catch. You will move agilely underwater just like marine animals. Even without any equipment, you will be able to easily submerge underwater for at least ten minutes.”

“Sounds great... the ‘Keepers of the Seas’ from the Lord of Storms?”

“It was called by that name in the past.” Alger did not pause and continued. “The second Sequence 9 potion is called ‘Spectator.’ Although I am not sure what it was called in the past. This set of potions enables you to have an exceptionally sharp mind with acute observational abilities. I believe you can understand what ‘spectator’ means from watching operas and plays. Just like an audience, spectators judge the ‘actors’ in the secular world, catching a glimpse of the real thoughts of them through their emotions, conduct, and mantras.”

At this point, Alger emphasized, “You must remember, regardless of whether you are at an extravagant banquet or a crowded street, spectators can only be spectators forever.”

Audrey’s eyes shone as she listened, and spoke after a long while, “Why? Alright, this is a follow-up question. I-I think I have fallen in love with this feeling—of being a ‘Spectator.’ How can I get this potion’s formula? What can I use to trade with you for it?”

Alger looked like he was already prepared as he said in a deep voice, “The blood of Ghost Sharks, at least 100 milliliters of it.”

Audrey nodded her head excitedly, but subsequently asked worriedly, “If I can get it—and I’m saying if—how do I hand it to you? How can you promise me that you can give the potion’s formula to me in return for the Ghost Shark’s blood, as well as the authenticity of the formula?”

Alger said calmly, “I’ll give you an address. I’ll mail the formula to you, or tell you directly here, once I receive the blood of the Ghost Shark.”

“As for promises, I think that both you and I can feel assured under the witness of the mysterious sir.”

Chapter 7 Code Names

“Continue, the both of you.”

Alger nodded and sat back down before looking at Audrey.

“If you can obtain the Ghost Shark’s blood, get someone to send it to the Warrior & Sea Bar at Pelican Street, in the White Rose Borough of Pritz Harbor. Tell the boss, Williams, that it’s what the ‘Captain’ wants.”

“Once I acknowledge receipt, will you be giving me an address to mail the potion formula to or do you want me to tell it to you here directly?”

Audrey thought for a moment before saying with a smile, “I will choose the more secure method. Let’s do it here, although it’s a test of my memory.”

Since Mr. Fool had agreed to bear witness for the trade, it also represented that there would be a similar ‘gathering’ the next time.

With this in mind, she suddenly turned her head as she looked at Zhou Mingrui with sparkling eyes. With a tone of interest, she suggested, “Mr. Fool, would you mind making a few more ‘attempts’ like this?”

Episode 1 At 22:30

However, more gatherings meant it was easier to expose himself!

Indeed, regardless of the world, there is no such thing as a free lunch... Zhou Mingrui extended his right hand again as he rapped the side of the long table with his finger gently.

Considering the fact that he was in control of the gathering's summoning and dismissal, any threat of exposure was within the confines of his control. The pros clearly exceeded the cons, so Zhou Mingrui rapidly made a decision.

He stopped his rapping as he smiled at the anticipative and perturbed gazes of the duo.

“I’m a person who likes a fair and equal exchange.

“Your help will not go unrewarded.

“Every Monday at three in the afternoon, try your best to be alone. After I make a few more attempts and figure out certain things, perhaps you can apply for a leave of absence ahead of time. You will no longer need to worry about being in inappropriate situations.”

Episode 1 At 23:02

Following that, she looked at Alger.

“Mr. Hanged Man, can you repeat the address again once more? I’m afraid that my memories will fail me.”

“No problem.” Alger was very pleased with Audrey’s seriousness as he repeated the address once more.

After repeating it to herself silently thrice, Audrey said again in excitement, “I heard that tarot cards were invented by Emperor Roselle as a game. In fact, doesn’t it come equipped with the power to divine the future?”

“No. Most of the time, divination stems from one’s self. Everyone has something spiritual about themselves, allowing them to attune to the spiritual world and connect to information about themselves at an even higher level. However, ordinary folks are unable to notice this, much less be able to interpret the ‘signs’ they receive. This information will present itself with the help of divination tools. Let me raise a simple example, dreams and dream interpreters.” Alger took a glance at Zhou Mingrui and seeing no response from him, he refuted Audrey’s claim. “Tarot cards are, in fact, such a tool. It uses more symbolism and more logical elements to help us in conveniently and accurately interpreting the signs.”

Although Zhou Mingrui appeared indifferent, he was actually listening very carefully. It was only at this point that his empty mind slowly became heavy as his head began to feel a throbbing pain.

“Got it.” Audrey nodded in agreement. Following that, she emphasized, “That’s not what I meant. I’m not doubting the tarot cards, but I heard that Emperor Roselle had actually created another set of cards, secret and mysterious ones. They were paper cards which symbolized a particular unknown power. There were a total of twenty-two cards that he completed. Later on in life, he referenced them to create the twenty-two Major Arcana tarot cards which are used as a gaming tool. Was what I said correct?”

She looked at Zhou Mingrui as though she was attempting to get an answer from the mysterious Mr. Fool.

All Zhou Mingrui did was smile without saying a word. He cast his gaze at The Hanged Man as though he was putting him to the test.

Alger subconsciously straightened his back and said in a deep voice, “That’s right. It is said that Emperor Roselle had seen the Blasphemy Slate and that set of paper cards contain the profound mysteries of the twenty-two paths of the divine.”

“Twenty-two paths of the divine...” repeated Audrey with a longing tone.

At that moment, Zhou Mingrui’s headache intensified. He felt that his invisible connection with the crimson stars and grayish-white fog was beginning to falter.

“Alright, that will be all for today’s gathering,” he said in a deep voice after making the decision immediately.

“By your will.” Alger bowed his head respectfully.

“By your will.” Audrey mimicked The Hanged Man.

She still had many questions and thoughts; thus, she was unwilling to have it end so soon.

As Zhou Mingrui severed the connection, he said with a smile, “Let us look forward to the next gathering.”

The ‘stars’ brightened once more as the crimson light receded like water. Just as Audrey and Alger heard Mr. Fool’s words, their figures turned into a blur as they phased away.

In a second, the ‘projection’ shattered as the gray fog restored its silence.

As for Zhou Mingrui, he felt himself turning heavy rapidly. His surroundings turned fleeting as his eyes met darkness before changing into dazzling sunlight.

He was still standing in the middle of his apartment.

“It was like a dream... What the heck was that foggy world... Who or what sort of power created the changes that just happened...” Zhou Mingrui sighed softly. He was completely puzzled as he walked towards the study desk as though his legs were filled with lead.

He picked up the pocket watch he placed outside to determine how much time had passed.

“Time flowed at the same pace.” Zhou Mingrui made a rough judgment.

After putting down his pocket watch, he found himself unable to endure the splitting headache any further. He sat on the chair and lowered his head, using his left thumb and middle finger to massage his temples.

After a long while, he suddenly let out a sigh and said in Mandarin, “From the looks of it, I won’t be able to return any time soon...”

Only the clueless could be fearless. After witnessing such a fascinating event and learning the situation regarding Beyonders and the mysterious world, Zhou Mingrui no longer dared to rashly try the luck enhancement ritual using ancient Feysac or Loen language.

Who knew what other kinds of situations would happen. Perhaps, it would be more bizarre, horrifying, or even a living hell!

“At the very least, I should attempt only when I have a deep mastery of mysticism,” thought Zhou Mingrui helplessly.

Thankfully, the so-called gathering could provide him with help.

After another bout of silence, he muttered to himself with a tone of dismay, disappointment, agony, and grief, “From this moment forth, I’m Klein.”

Klein tried his best to refocus his solutions and plans so as to purge the negative emotions in him.

Perhaps, he could learn the potion formula for ‘Spectator’ from the side...

The ‘gathering’ that just happened sure is fascinating. People who reside in different places across the world can reduce hundreds of kilometers to just mere inches and discuss face-to-face while supplying each other’s needs. Uh, speaking of which, this does sound a little familiar...

Klein was stunned for a few seconds before he burst out in laughter. Pressing against his temple, he jested under his breath, “Wasn’t that a social networking platform?”

Chapter 16 Rat-Baiting with Dogs, Chapter 17 Special Operations Department, Chapter 18 Origin and Cause and Chapter 19 Sealed Artifacts

In those chapters Klein goes to the address he has and learns about the security company from another street, there is the HQ of the Nighthawks, then when he goes in, he is guided by Rozanne and is also „hired” as a civilian member of the Nighthawks

Key differences from anime:

- He is not going to become a beyonder yet he only learns about beyonders dark side and the „Losing control” part from the captain
- He is also learning about the pathways, the churches, the other civilian members of the Nighthawks and Sealed Artifacts (because he is told about Chanis Gate)
- He is also sent to practice shooting and is given demon hunting bullets and an advance payment
- Klein’s only job was to try to remember what happened on the 27th and is told only to retrace he’s steps

Why this matters:

These chapters establish why Klein is cautious about becoming a Beyonder.

In the anime, this hesitation is skipped, making his later decision to advance feel rushed and less grounded.

- READ – Character grounding & motivation

Chapter 20 The Forgetful Dunn, Chapter 21 An Old Friend in A Different World, Chapter 22 Starting Sequence, Chapter 23 Side Arm, Chapter 24 Penny-Pincher, Chapter 25 Cathedral, Chapter 26 Practice and Chapter 27 Siblings-Dinner

All these chapters have been skipped in the anime

Why these chapters matter:

These chapters develop Klein's daily life, financial pressure, family responsibility, and slow adjustment to the mysterious world — grounding his later choices emotionally.

- READ – Critical decision context

Chapter 28 Secret Order

In this chapter, after Klein is being pursued in the latest chapters and saves himself by going to the Cathedral and through it entering the Nighthawks HQ, in the middle of the night he is suddenly awoken by the captain and is told that there is an intruder

After they resolve the incident Dunn tells him about the other Sequences and the potions they hold and what they mean (in the previous chapters Klein reads some of Roselle diary pages and learns that the emperor regretted not choosing one of the 3: Apprentice, Marauder, or Seer!)

Key difference from the anime is that all of this was summarized to Klein going to Old Neil learning about Sleepless, Corpse-Collector, Mystery Pryer and Seer, then after seeing the emperor's diary pages he chooses Seer (not really what happened in the web novel)

Important clarification for anime viewers:

Klein's choice of the Seer pathway is not a single moment decision.

It is the result of fear, limited options, Roselle's warnings, and practical survival concerns — most of which are skipped or compressed in the anime.

- 🔗 REFERENCE – Decision aftermath (compressed in anime)

Chapter 29 „Jobs“ and Rentals Are Serious Business and Chapter 30 Brand New Beginning

In those chapters Klein learns about the Seer potion abilities and after everything settles down, he is thinking that he should become a beyonder as well after reading Roselle diary and seeing that he needs some abilities to protect himself also he needs to learn about mysticism, so he is keen on selecting Seer (his other choice was Mystery Pryer)

After he settles on a potion and becoming a beyonder, he learns his „job change“ is going to get him a raise and discusses with his siblings to move to a better home

Key difference from the anime is that all this didn't happen and he went straight to becoming a beyonder from the Seer Pathway

Why this matters:

In the anime, Klein appears decisive and confident.

In the novel, this decision is reluctant and defensive — changing how we understand his character.

From Chapter 16 – Chapter 30 is episode 2 00:00 – 14:00 Summarized

○ READ – Power mechanics (missing explanation)

Chapter 31 Potion, Chapter 32 Spirit Vision and Chapter 33 Switch

In those chapters Klein learns about the potions, how to concoct them and about ingredients, he also learns about his power „Spirit Vision” and how to turn it on and off

Key information from these chapters was left out in the anime

This omission is one of the main reasons anime-only viewers struggle to understand how powers work in later episodes.

From 14:00 – 20:07 in the anime everything that has happened in the latest chapters is shown in several moments, but without any details and everything is moving so fast without any information on how they got to those points

☒ NOT ADAPTED YET – Future Tarot Club developments

Chapter 34 Advance Payment, Chapter 35 Exchange of Information and Chapter 36 A Simple Question

In those chapters another „gathering” was held and the transaction between The Hanged Man and Justice was done and he managed to get to Sequence 7 Seafarer and she got the potion to Sequence 9 Spectator

Key difference is that in the anime this is not happening yet

Timeline note:

This gathering has not happened yet in the anime, even though later episodes reference its consequences.

- READ – Acting Method (core digestion mechanic)

Chapter 37 The Club, Chapter 38 Novice Hobbyist and Chapter 39 Interesting Trick

In these chapters Klein while doing his „Job” sees a Divination Club and decides to enter and try the „Acting method”, after realizing he doesn’t have enough money to enroll he decides to have let someone there do a divination for him so he may find the Antigonus Notebook

Klein then goes to the security company where he is confronted by Leonard about his „suicide”, after they talk, he goes to practice his shooting; after finishing he meets Old Neil for some mysticism lessons

Crucial missing concept:

The acting method explains why Klein’s potion digests.

Without it, the anime shows results without explaining the cause.

Chapter 40 Mysticism Curriculum

In this chapter Klein learns about divination

Key information from all these chapters is missing in the anime

- ⟳ REFERENCE – Rearranged mission setup

Chapter 41 Audrey and Her Susie

In this chapter Audrey becomes a Spectator, and the Nighthawks receive a mission request

Chapter 42 Butler Klee

In this chapter Leonard accepts the request and involves Klein in it because he needs a Seer to help him finish it faster

Key information: in anime from 21:10 – 22:00 is what happened in this chapter but way too fast and different from the web novel

- READ – Dream revelation context

Chapter 43 Search and Chapter 44 Fate

In those chapters Klein and Leonard manage to save the kid and turn back to the security company

Key information: at the end of chapter 44 Klein has a dream revelation about the Antigonus Notebook (because the house where the kidnappers were hiding was close to the notebook)

In the anime from 29:00 – 31:43 is where he gets the dream revelation and is exactly at the door, he is looking which is not accurate with the web novel

What happens from 33:40 – 36:15 happened in the book way earlier and has no connection to the story so far, it is just a way to show some moments with the siblings in the anime

Why this change matters:

In the novel, the revelation feels coincidental and unsettling.

In the anime, placing Klein directly at the door removes that sense of creeping fate.

○ READ – Chapters that contain missing or crucial information not explained in the anime

⟳ REFERENCE – Chapters mentioned only for timeline or adaptation comparison

☒ NOT ADAPTED YET – Chapters that will appear in later episodes, OVA, or movie

Important Note about Episode 3

Episode 3 heavily rearranges the novel's chronology.

Many chapters listed below are not meant to be read all at once.

They are grouped to show what information the anime assumes you already know, what is skipped, and what is moved to later episodes.

If you want clarification after Episode 3, bare minimum to read:

- > Chapter 77 – Remnant Items
- > Chapters 78–79 – Trauma / Another Murmuring
- > Chapters 37–40 – Acting Method & Divination (Optional, if not already read in Episode 2)

🎬 Chapter 77 – Remnant Items

Why:

- Explicitly names Sequence 8: Clown
- Confirms Klein's intention to advance as a formal Beyonder
- The anime assumes this knowledge but never states it clearly

🎬 Chapters 78–79 – Trauma / Another Murmuring

Why:

- Explain interaction between Beyonders of the same pathway
- Show psychological consequences and instability
- The anime only shows the corpse, removing crucial context

🎬 Chapters 37–40 – Acting Method (optional but strongly recommended)

Why:

- Explains why Klein's potion digestion progresses
- Without this, the anime looks arbitrary
- If the reader already read these in Episode 2, they can skip rereading

 REFERENCE – Faithfully adapted scenes

Chapter 45 Returning and Chapter 46 Portrait Episode 3 From 2:15 – 04:00

☒ NOT ADAPTED YET / PARTIALLY ADAPTED LATER – Foundational setup skipped here

#####

All these chapters do not appear in episode 3 which means the chronological way of the story is not the same as the web novel

Some may appear in later episodes, but the story in those chapters is not fully shown in the anime

Only specific concepts from these chapters become relevant later (acting method, potion digestion, amulets) the full stories are not required to read now.

- READ – Advancement & pathway clarification

Chapter 77 Remnant Items Episode 3 From 25:30 – 27:20

This chapter is missing from the anime; only important information is that Klein says he wants to become a formal Nighthawk „Beyonder” not a civilian member anymore and the name of Sequence 8 potion from the Seer pathway – Clown

- READ – Beyonder interaction & psychological aftermath

Chapter 78 Trauma and Chapter 79 Another Murmuring Episode 3 From 26:35 – 27:00

Those chapters are missing from the anime; they only show us the corpse of the clown and nothing about the interaction between beyonders from the same pathway

From 27:20 – 29:12 the anime shows little information from chapter 77 and even from the chapters they didn't include in this episode (about Klein sending a letter to his professor)

Key difference from the anime: after the battle for the Antigonus Notebook Klein's potion is shown to digest more, this is not accurate because the potion started digesting because he is going to the divination club and „acting” as a seer, information missing because they did not include the chapters from above

- ⟳ REFERENCE – Relationship & information source altered

Chapter 80 Banquet Invitation

This chapter is missing from the anime, in this chapter Klein does not talk with Azik or his professor about the Hornacis mountain range, but he reads about it in the newspapers

From 29:12 – 31:40 in the anime Klein meets Azik as his professor, in the web novel Azik is just a colleague of his actual professor Cohen

- ☒ NOT ADAPTED YET – Research moved to later episodes

Chapter 81 Finally Meeting

This chapter is missing from the anime; in this chapter Klein uses his professor introduction note to go to the library and search more about the Hornacis mountain range

This is done in the anime in a later episode, and the focus is on him meeting Sirius Arapis not research

☒ NOT ADAPTED YET – Acting & amulets introduced later

Chapter 82 Herb Store

This chapter is missing from the anime

Key information: Klein goes to the divination club and „acts” for his digestion of the potion

Chapter 83 Carving

This chapter is missing from the anime

Key information: Klein learns to do amulets in his previous chapters and decides to make 2 for his siblings also Klein becomes an official member of the Nighthawks and needs to do a ritual consisting of him completing a mission alone

Episode 4 continues the non-chronological adaptation started in Episode 3.

Most chapters listed below are not required to read now.

If you want clarification after Episode 4, bare minimum to read:

- > Chapter 89 – A Simple Mission
- > Chapter 95 – The Supplicant
- > Chapter 100 – Interpreting Symbols

🎬 Chapter 89 – A Simple Mission

Why:

- This is Klein's official qualification mission
- The anime treats him as already "on track" without explaining why
- Establishes stakes and responsibility

🎬 Chapter 95 – The Supplicant

Why:

- Introduces another prayer above the gray fog
- Explains why Klein starts noticing unknown voices and languages
- Anime assumes this awareness

🎬 Chapter 100 – Interpreting Symbols

Why:

- Explains new usage of gray fog powers
- Clarifies why Klein's divination improves suddenly
- Anime shows results, not method

 REFERENCE – Skipped material reused out of order

In episode 4 they show some information from the chapters in episode 3 that they skipped and they change how the story goes

From 02:40 – 20:30 is little information from the previous chapters they skipped and shows the change in story making Hanass Vincent receive guidance about Klein Moretti

Chapter 101 Unexpected Clue, Chapter 102 Cloth Merchant, Chapter 103 Doing as The Heart Willed, Chapter 104 Mr. Z and Chapter 105 Spirit Channeling

Chapter 117 Contact

This chapter is not adapted in the anime

Key information: Klein meets Doctor Dexter Guderian and manages to make him an informant for the Nighthawks

Why Episode 4 feels disjointed in the anime

The anime removes Klein's parallel investigation, combat preparation, and information network, then reintroduces only the outcomes in later episodes.

The chapters marked READ above contain the missing process.

Those chapters are adapted in episode 5, but only at the market when Klein goes with Old Neil for ingredients

Key information: Klein learns about charms and decides to go to the market to buy ingredients for making them, here he encounters a situation with a beyonder from the Mandated Punishers who lost control (in the anime this is done differently „story – wise” and is also adapted in later episodes)

☒ NOT ADAPTED YET – Audrey side story (parallel timeline)

Chapter 131 Transaction

This chapter is also going to be adapted in the OVA/Movie and a little bit from next chapter as well

Why:

- Explains Klein's decision to pursue advancement
- Clarifies the Azik–Lamud Castle link

The anime shows the advancement first and the cause afterward.

If you want clarification after Episode 9, bare minimum to read:

In episode 9 of the anime the first half of the episode and the second half are done the opposite way than in the web novel, Klein is a Sequence 9 Seer when Old Neil loses control and after that he advances to Sequence 8 Clown, in the anime they decided to show Klein's advancement and then Old Neil losing control

Why Episode 10 requires reading

Episode 10 compresses investigation logic, removes Klein's information network, and skips explanations behind several key decisions.

Chapters marked READ restore that missing reasoning.

If you want clarification after Episode 10, bare minimum to read:

- > Chapter 170 – Copper Whistle

Important Note about Episode 11

Episode 11 adapts a complete mission from the web novel, but simplifies the investigation, preparation, and escalation.

Why this matters:

The anime shows the mission's outcome clearly but skips the reasoning behind several investigative and spiritual decisions.

In the northern part of the Loen Kingdom, the September breeze, that had an additional coldness to it, howled through the cemetery. It was even gloomier and colder than usual.

The cold jolted Klein back to his senses as he muttered with a rueful smile, “It looks like there are still some secrets behind my transmigration...

“But it seems like I’ll only be able to resurrect another two times at most, not any more... And if I were to minced up or completely crushed, who knows if this recovery ability that doesn’t usually appear would even be useful...”
